NEW MEX. CLIMATE

RECOMMENDED BY N. S. DEMOTTE
FOR LUNG TROUBLE.

MANY HEALED THERE

Artesia For Pure Air, Sunshine and
Artesian Water, He Says, in Letter
to the Democrat-Forum.

Artesia, N. M.—Editor Democrat-Forum: As you have asked me to write another letter, I will do so, although this will be more in the nature of an advertisement for a medicine over which the pure food and drugs act has no jurisdiction, and is intended to benefit not the manufacturer or dispenser, but the ultimate consumer. If one person among all your readers, heeding what is here said, shall regain health, I shall feel well repaid for the writing, as I know you will for the publication. The name of the remedy is New Mexico climate, and it is recommended as a specific for lung trouble or tuberculosis in its early stages, although if you read to the signature at the bottom you will incline to the belief that "while there is life there is hope." From what I have read and from what I have learned since coming here I am convinced the Pecos valley of New Mexico is superior to most of the places to which sufferers from lung trouble are taken. Some of the objections to other places might be mentioned.

The winters in Colorado are too long and too cold, climate changes are as sudden and severe as in most northern climates, and the altitude in most parts is too high for invalids from as low an altitude as that of Missouri, while there is but little more sunshine. About all there is to recommend southern California is its pleasant climate and sea breeze, and nothing is said of its low altitude and dampness. The same objection applies to Florida.

Upon the other hand, here is a land of sunshine, day after day, with not a cloud to darken the sky—warm, invigorating days—with cool nights always, summer and winter. I have seen fewer men wearing overcoats here than any place I ever was in in my life, but they all sleep under blankets at night. A writer in the Sunset Magazine, describing New Mexico, said:

"The moths may eat your overcoat but they never get a chance at your blankets."

The wind blows more or less every day, and some days a perfect gale; malaria and kindred diseases can find no lodgment here. The altitude of this place is 3,500 feet—high enough that the air is pure, the rainfall is only ten inches in a year, so the air is absolutely dry. Combined together these elements from an atmosphere that is healing to the inflamed tissues of diseased lungs, while the change in altitude is not so great as to produce the bad effects so often experienced by persons going higher. Added to the above reasons which should appeal to persons of intelligence, I have the testimony of persons whom I know to be trustworthy as to what has been done for hundreds who have sought relief here and found it.

Before saying anything as to these testimonials, I would offer a word of advice to any who may be induced through reading this letter to visit this place in search of health. Consult a specialist at home (you'll forgive me if I recommend Dr. Anthony), have him prescribe your diet, tell you how to live down here and how to exercise. If you are unable to care for yourself bring someone with you to care for you, for while the people here are the salt of the earth and will do anything in their power for you, they are desperately afraid of tuberculosis—they have seen so much of it.

Now as to what has been done here: Among the acquaintances we have made here is the wife of a furniture dealer who was introduced by friends we have known for years and who have known her since she was brought here a few years ago upon a stretcher, desperately ill, and who vouch for her story. Before coming she had several hemorrhages and had one after her arrival. She was confined to her bed for weeks, then was able to sit up, then to sit out on the porch in the sun, then to walk around, then able to do her own work, and finally as when we saw her, apparently well and strong. She has been recovered for several years, but has never left here even to visit her old home, and she says she never will. The owner of the house I am occupying told me the doctor worked over him all night the night before he started here trying to get him in shape to stand the trip.

CLOSE OF SEASON DIES VERY SUDDEN

LAST BASKET BALL GAME TO NIGHT AT NORMAL.

TO PLAY A K. C. TEAM DUE TO HEART TROUBLE

Vandersloot and Quinn Out of the Game—Rev. Robert L. Finch Will Act as Referee.

Tonight the Normals will play their last basket ball game of the season with the Kansas City university team. Very little is known about the Kansas City aggregation, as they are members of the Kansas Intercollegiate Athletic association, and most of their games are played with teams from that state, thus making it impossible to get very accurate comparisons as to their strength.

The game this evening will be the first game in three years that Captain Vandersloot has not figured with the Normals. This makes quite a gap in the team, and with Quinn also out the prospects are not the brightest. Injuries and sickness have been the regular menu for the Normalites this year. Tonight the entire Normal team will be made up of men who are putting in their first year at basket ball, and will line up in the following man: Ford and Watson, forwards; Powell, center; Noblett and McReynolds, guards. Scott, Schaub and Miller will also be used for part of the game.

Many people are under the impression that this game does not come under the regular season ticket, but this is not true, as it is one of the regular games and season tickets will admit the holders to the game tonight. Rev. Finch will act as referee this evening.

Valuable Farm Animal.
Probably what has been one of the most valuable farm animals in the country was the one sold at E. Boyer's sale Friday to R. P. Hosmer, the auctioneer, for $85. This mare was bought by Mr. Boyer at a sale near Braddyville fifteen years ago. She was 4-year-old then and Ernest paid $50.25 for her, which was a big price for a horse at that time. During the fifteen years he has owned her the mare has never failed to do a good summer's work, and in this time has raised colts that have brought her owner about $3,000. One of her colts sold for $300 and another at $250.—Burlington Junction Post.

John L. Moore died Thursday night at 9:10 o'clock, after a several weeks' illness of pneumonia. Mr. Moore was secretary and sales manager for the Moore Bros. lightning rod factory of this city.

The funeral services have not been arranged for but will probably be held Sunday at the White Cloud church, southwest of Maryville.

Mr. Kime was the son of "Uncle" John Kime, who died last fall. He was born November 9, 1858, in Pike county, Ohio, and came with his parents to Nodaway county where he was a boy. He has lived a greater part of the time in the Rockford neighborhood, with the exception of three years in Kansas. By the terms of the will one-third of the personal property and also all household goods and furniture is left to the wife, and the real estate is to be held in tact until her death.

During her life-time she is to receive for her own use absolutely all the income, rents, profits and products of the farm. At her death the estate will go equally to Frank W., Willie F., John J., Othilde B., Adam J., George, Helena R., Joseph A., Elizabeth W. R. (now Sister Hildegard, O. S. F.), Joseph M., Andrew C., and Agnes O., and one equal portion to the children of Mary W., Stinehouse, now deceased. A son, Michael J. Kimmel, is given $5, as he had received money from his father. Joseph A. and Adam J. Kimmel are named as executors.

Can Ride With the Carriers.

A new rule just announced in the supplement to the postal guide accords the right to road overseers to ride with the rural mail carriers, provided the trip is made while the overseers are in the discharge of their official duties, the rule reading as follows:

"Postmasters at rural delivery offices are instructed to permit road supervisors or commissioners having direct charge of the highways over which the rural delivery routes are in operation, to ride over the routes with rural carriers when such road officials are actually engaged in the performance of their duties in connection with the inspection of the roads."

The Baptist Meetings.

A large crowd was out Thursday night at the revival services at the First Baptist church. The interest seems on the increase and the second week is nearing its close. Six were received for baptism at the close of the service, and two asked for prayer. One professed conversion and will unite with another church. Let everyone who can be present at this evening's service.

Demands a Good Business Man.

Siloam Springs, Ark., February 24, 1914.—Editor Democrat-Forum: Allow me to endorse the move to get some first class business man like Ed Wolpert to become a candidate for mayor of Maryville. The proper management of the municipal affairs of a city like Maryville demands the best business talent that the city can furnish. Who would think of employing an irresponsible novice to manage the affairs of a bank with $100,000 capital? Is not the proper management of the business and social affairs of our city of much greater importance to the people of Maryville than that of her banks and stores? It should be regarded as a privilege by every true man to get an opportunity to serve the highest interest of his community for the public good. If we can't have commission government, which we ought to have, then let us have the next best possible thing—a city council, mayor included, composed of the best men we have, regardless of party affiliation. I expect to be home in time to vote.

We are enjoying the comparatively mild climate of northwest Arkansas, declared to be by many who have traveled extensively the most enjoyable climate the year round in the United States. The coldest here this winter was 2 above, and that but for a few hours. The next coldest was this morning. It was 12 above. The weather is of the very best and the people are a fair average with many as good as you will find anywhere. We always look with interest for the coming of The Democrat-Forum, that we may learn what is going on at home, for it remembered, no matter where we are, "there is no place like home," especially when your home is in Maryville, Mo.

The Safety Oil Gas
Burner Company

Peter Herwick, Sales Agent

The Safety Oil Gas Burner Co. of St. Paul, Minn., has opened their Nodaway county branch here and placed Peter Herwick in charge. This burner has formed a great many satisfied and enthusiastic users here in Maryville. The burner burns coal oil that is generated into gas right in the firebox of the cook stove. The cost of burning it is about 1½¢ per hour. The attachment can be put in any cook stove. Coal oil is being used more and more for fuel. It has practically reduced fuel bills to about one-half. Peter Herwick is well known in Maryville, and to judge from the business he is doing, the time is not far off when there will be hundreds of these burners in use here. His place of business is in the old Oak building, where he demonstrates the burner.

WHAT THE MEN HAD TO SAY.

Reasons Given to Palmyra Ministers
About Church Attendance Are Offered Here, Too.

In view of the splendid response to the invitation of our ministers and the church federation to attend church by men and women who have drifted into the habit of non-attendance, the following answers compiled from letters sent to over five hundred men of Palmyra recently by the Ministerial Alliance of that place, embracing three general queries, should be read with considerable interest here, as the same answers in general would probably be obtained from a similar number of queries sent out to our own men, or to the men of any average community:

Why they do:

From a sense of duty.

For instruction and fellowship.

To worship God.

For entertainment, prestige, business and social popularity, pleasure.

Church a place to meet God.

Church aids me in my effort to live the Christian life.

It ministers to soul hunger.

Because of a longing for that which the Gospel offers.

Why they do not:

About one-half of the answers received laid the blame on the churches thusly:

Church unspiritual.

Always calling for money.

Inconsistency and hypocrisy among church members.

Church doesn't tactfully invite men to its services.

Preaching lacking in vigor and attractiveness.

Church fails to do what it professes.

The other half laid the blame on themselves, in this wise.

Excuses too easily found.

Indifference and neglect.

Don't want consciences stirred.

Habits.

Newspapers.

Love of ease.

Stress of business life.

Lost interest.

Ignorance.

In replying to the query as to why more women than men attend church regularly, these answers were received:

Women are better than men.

Women are more religious than men.

Women are more emotional than men.

Women are more responsive to religious appeal.

Trained with greater care from childhood.

Have more time and better opportunity than men.

Christianity has done more for the women.

Not so many attractions to lead them away from church.

Going to church is more of a diversion with her than man.

Not so much engaged in wordly enterprises.

Not so much in contact with evil.

Woman is more constant in her devotion to Christ and church. "Last at the cross, first at the tomb."

Needs of Savior more than men.

More idealistic and more free from vices condemned by preachers.

More of them.

When we tell you that Vinol is the best remedy in our whole stock for making weak, puny, ailing children strong, robust and rosy we are only telling you what has been proved by hundreds of mothers.

J. L. Pickling, Macon, Ga., says: "My child was very thin and delicate no appetite, nervous, and did not sleep well. Doctors did not help her. Vinol was recommended and the change, after fair trial, was wonderful. She sleeps soundly all night, has a splendid appetite and has gained in weight. I wish every mother knew what Vinol will do for delicate children."

What Vinol did for this little girl it will do for every weak and ailing child, because sickly children need the strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains—that is why Vinol builds them up quickly and gives them a fine, healthy color. Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are, we honestly believe, the best remedy made for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all other Stomach Ills

We Know They're Good

Delays Are Dangerous

You Risk No Money

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, in addition to other ingredients, contain Pepsin and Bismuth, two great digestive aids used by the entire medical profession. They soothe the inflamed stomach, check the heartburn and distress, stimulate a healthy secretion of the gastric juice, aid in rapid and comfortable digestion of the food and help to quickly convert it into rich red blood, and thereby into flesh, bone and muscle. They relieve stomach distress promptly, and, used regularly for a short time, tend to restore the stomach to a comfortable, easy-acting, healthy state. They aid greatly to promote regular bowel action.

Don't neglect indigestion, for it frequently leads to all sorts of ills and complications. The pain and discomfort is not the most unfortunate part. The fact that when the stomach is not acting right, the material needed to repair the wastes that are constantly taking place in the body is not being given to the blood either in the proper condition or fast enough is far more serious. Nothing will cause more trouble than an unhealthy stomach. The blues, debility, lack of strength and energy, constipation, biliousness, headaches and scores of other serious ailments result from the failure of the stomach to properly do its work.

Commencing Monday, Mar. 1, we will give a Watch with each boys' knee pant suit. The watch is German silver 'Stem Winder and Setter'—and has our name and guarantee on the dial—the factory that gets them up for us is one of the largest in the world. We are going to increase the sales on boys' suits—also increase the volume of business in that line, so we can afford this extra expense—without increasing the cost of the suits.

We handle the XTRAGOOD line of Boys' and Children's wear, made by Ederheimer Stein & Co., Chicago—the best line made in this country.

We have received a large shipment of Spring Suits and more coming right along.

Wireless Operator Testines.
Philadelphia, Feb. 27.—Adolph Doehler, chief wireless operator on the steamer Nantucket, which sank the steamer Monroe, testifying at the trial of Captain Berry of the Nantucket, said he was reading a book until a few minutes before the collision. He had his receiver to his ear while reading, he said, and heard the Monroe and its sister ship, the Hamilton, exchanging messages as to their positions, but he did not think it worth while mentioning it to Captain Berry.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" Can't Harm Tender Little Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup company."—Advertisement.

"The Sweet Girl of Yore."

Backward, turn backward, oh time in your flight, give us a girl with skirts not so tight; give us a girl whose charms, many or few, are not exposed by too much peekaboo; give us a girl, no matter what age, who won't use the street for a vaudeville stage; give us a girl not too sharply in view; dress her in skirts the sun cannot shine through. And give us the dances of days gone by, with plenty of clothes and steps not so high, put the turkey-trot capers and the buttermilk slides, hurdy-gurdy twist and wiggletail glides and other such bunny hugs all on a level as products of hell inspired by the devil. And let us feast our optics once more on the pure, sweet woman of the days of yore. Yes, time, turn backward and grant our request for God's richest blessing, but not undressed.—Exchange.

NO. 231.

NEW MEX. CLIMATE

RECOMMENDED BY N. S. DEMOTTE
FOR LUNG TROUBLE.

MANY HEALED THERE

Artesia For Pure Air, Sunshine and
Artesian Water, He Says, in Letter
to the Democrat-Forum.

Artesia, N. M.—Editor Democrat-Forum: As you have asked me to write another letter, I will do so, although this will be more in the nature of an advertisement for a medicine over which the pure food and drugs act has no jurisdiction, and is intended to benefit not the manufacturer or dispenser, but the ultimate consumer. If one person among all your readers, heeding what is here said, shall regain health, I shall feel well repaid for the writing, as I know you will for the publication. The name of the remedy is New Mexico climate, and it is recommended as a specific for lung trouble or tuberculosis in its early stages, although if you read to the signature at the bottom you will incline to the belief that "while there is life there is hope." From what I have read and from what I have learned since coming here I am convinced the Pecos valley of New Mexico is superior to most of the places to which sufferers from lung trouble are taken. Some of the objections to other places might be mentioned.

The winters in Colorado are too long and too cold, climate changes are as sudden and severe as in most northern climates, and the altitude in most parts is too high for invalids from as low an altitude as that of Missouri, while there is but little more sunshine. About all there is to recommend southern California is its pleasant climate and sea breeze, and nothing is said of its low altitude and dampness. The same objection applies to Florida.

Upon the other hand, here is a land of sunshine, day after day, with not a cloud to darken the sky—warm, invigorating days—with cool nights always, summer and winter. I have seen fewer men wearing overcoats here than any place I ever was in my life, but they all sleep under blankets at night. A writer in the Sunset Magazine, describing New Mexico, said:

"The moths may eat your overcoat but they never get a chance at your blankets."

The wind blows more or less every day, and some days a perfect gale; malaria and kindred diseases can find no lodgment here. The altitude of this place is 3,500 feet—high enough that the air is pure, the rainfall is only ten inches in a year, so the air is absolutely dry. Combined together these elements from an atmosphere that is healing to the inflamed tissues of diseased lungs, while the change in altitude is not so great as to produce the bad effects so often experienced by persons going higher. Added to the above reasons which should appeal to persons of intelligence, I have the testimony of persons whom I know to be trustworthy as to what has been done for hundreds who have sought relief here and found it.

Before saying anything as to these testimonials, I would offer a word of advice to any who may be induced through reading this letter to visit this place in search of health. Consult a specialist at home (you'll forgive me if I recommend Dr. Anthony), have him prescribe your diet, tell you how to live down here and how to exercise. If you are unable to care for yourself bring someone with you to care for you, for while the people here are the salt of the earth and will do anything in their power for you, they are desperately afraid of tuberculosis—they have seen so much of it.

Now as to what has been done here: Among the acquaintances we have made here is the wife of a furniture dealer who was introduced by friends we have known for years and who have known her since she was brought here a few years ago upon a stretcher, desperately ill, and who vouch for her story. Before coming she had several hemorrhages and had one after her arrival. She was confined to her bed for weeks, then was able to sit up, then to sit out on the porch in the sun, then to walk around, then able to do her own work, and finally as when we saw her, apparently well and strong. She has been recovered for several years, but has never left here even to visit her old home, and she says she never will. The owner of the house I am occupying told me the doctor worked over him all night the night before he started here trying to get him in shape to stand the trip.

That was five years ago, and now he says that although he is 62 years old he is "working like a dog" trying to improve a farm here. He has a farm in Kansas, but says he wouldn't go back if they'd give him another like it. The barber who shaved me on my arrival here told me the doctors had told him he would die, and when he came here he weighed only 110 pounds. When I saw him he looked as though he had never been sick a day in his life. I have met a number of others who have told me how bad off they were and how well they were now. Among the good friends I have met here is John Angell, formerly of Maryville. Mrs. Angell told me she had often sat upon the side of the bed all night long suffering from asthma. Her trouble has disappeared since coming here. Mr. Angell has been here five years and he told me he knew he could count up at least fifty persons who came here desperately ill, many of them on stretchers, who had since recovered and either returned to their homes or remained to become citizens of this new and undeveloped country. And so it goes. Nearly every inhabitant of Artesia is a walking advertisement of the benefits of climatic conditions—enthusiastic boomers for pure air, sunshine and artesian water. If you will listen they all have a story to tell of some one they have known who came here very sick of lung trouble and who recovered. And these take no account of the hundreds who have come here only slightly affected. Do not understand from this that none have died. Some came too late, others neglect to take proper precaution, and some have suffered through neglect. But all will tell you if you come in time, diet properly and live right, you'll recover. And afterwards? Some go back, but many have remained and say they'll never leave the place where they found hope and regained health.

If from the above any are interested and want to know more of this valley, its people and its climate, if they will write W. B. Pistole, formerly of Hopkins, or John Angell, formerly of Maryville, I am sure their letters will meet the attention they deserve. And if you are a Republican and don't want to take the word of a Democrat, go and talk to Fred Hull of the Tribune, who will, I am sure, be glad to assist anyone in Nodaway county in the search for health.

Death of B. F. Wood.
Benjamin F. Wood, formerly of Burlington Junction and well known in Nodaway county, died in the Leavenworth hospital Monday at the age of 81 years. Mr. Wood had been ill since last fall, and his daughter, Miss Lillian Wood of Los Angeles, had been with him since that time. Mr. Wood lived in Burlington Junction ten years ago, and shortly after the death of Mrs. Wood they moved to Maryville.

The funeral service was held in Leavenworth, conducted by Dr. McBride, formerly of Tarkio, and the body was brought to Burlington Junction Tuesday evening by Miss Wood.

The burial service at the Ohio cemetery was conducted by Rev. L. C. Sappington, pastor of the Methodist church, and in the presence of a number of friends the body was laid to its last rest—Burlington Junction Post.

He was accompanied by his son Logan, who will live on one of the farms. Mr. Hayzlett will live in Buffalo and superintend the ranch.

S. B. Hayzlett came to Missouri in 1866, settling near Graham. He has owned at different times a great deal of Nodaway county land, and when he sold out had two or three large farms of several hundred acres each right in the heart of the best country on earth. —Graham Record.

CLOSE OF SEASON DIES VERY SUDDEN

LAST BASKET BALL GAME TO-NIGHT AT NORMAL.

TO PLAY A K. C. TEAM DUE TO HEART TROUBLE

Vandersloot and Quinn Out of the Game—Rev. Robert L. Finch Will Act as Referee.

Tonight the Normals will play their last basket ball game of the season with the Kansas City university team. Very little is known about the Kansas City aggregation, as they are members of the Kansas Intercollegiate Athletic association, and most of their games are played with teams from that state, thus making it impossible to get very accurate comparisons as to their strength.

The game this evening will be the first game in three years that Captain Vandersloot has not figured with the Normals. This makes quite a gap in the team, and with Quinn also out the prospects are not the brightest. Injuries and sickness have been the regular menu for the Normalites this year. Tonight the entire Normal team will be made up of men who are putting in their first year at basket ball, and will line up in the following man: Ford and Watson, forwards; Powell, center; Noblett and McReynolds, guards. Scott, Schaub and Miller will also be used for part of the game.

Many people are under the impression that this game does not come under the regular season ticket, but this is not true, as it is one of the regular games and season tickets will admit the holders to the game tonight. Rev. Finch will act as referee this evening.

Vainable Farm Animal.

Probably what has been one of the most valuable farm animals in the country was the one sold at E. Boyer's sale Friday to R. P. Hosmer, the auctioneer, for $85. This mare was bought by Mr. Boyer at a sale near Braddyville fifteen years ago. She was a 4-year-old then and Ernest paid $50.25 for her, which was a big price for a horse at that time. During the fifteen years he has owned her the mare has never failed to do a good summer's work, and in this time has raised colts that have brought her owner about $3,000. One of her colts sold for $300 and another at $250.—Burlington Junction Post.

Demands a Good Business Man.

Siloam Springs, Ark., February 24, 1914.—Editor Democrat-Forum: Allow me to endorse the move to get some first class business man like Ed Woffert to become a candidate for mayor of Maryville. The proper management of the municipal affairs of a city like Maryville demands the best business talent that the city can furnish. Who would think of employing an irresponsible novice to manage the affairs of a bank with $100,000 capital? Is not the proper management of the business and social affairs of our city of much greater importance to the people of Maryville than that of her banks and stores? It should be regarded as a privilege by every true man to get an opportunity to serve the highest interest of his community for the public good. If we can't have commission government, which we ought to have, then let us have the next best possible thing—a city council, mayor included, composed of the best men we have, regardless of party affiliation. I expect to be home in time to vote.

We are enjoying the comparatively mild climate of northwest Arkansas, declared to be by many who have traveled extensively the most enjoyable climate the year round in the United States. The coldest here this winter was 2 above, and that but for a few hours. The next coldest was this morning. It was 12 above. The weather is of the very best and the people are a fair average with many as good as you will find anywhere. We always look with interest for the coming of The Democrat-Forum, that we may learn what is going on at home, for it is remembered, no matter where we are, "there is no place like home," especially when your home is in Maryville, Mo.

The Safety Oil Gas
Burner Company

Peter Herwick, Sales Agent

The Safety Oil Gas Burner Co. of St. Paul, Minn., has opened their Nodaway county branch here and placed Peter Herwick in charge. This burner has formed a great many satisfied and enthusiastic users here in Maryville. The burner burns coal oil that is generated into gas right in the firebox of the cook stove. The cost of burning it is about 1½¢ per hour. The attachment can be put in any cook stove. Coal oil is being used more and more for fuel. It has practically reduced fuel bills to about one-half. Peter Herwick is well known in Maryville, and to judge from the business he is doing, the time is not far off when there will be hundreds of these burners in use here. His place of business is in the old Oak building, where he demonstrates the burner.

WHAT THE MEN HAD TO SAY.

Reasons Given to Palmyra Ministers
About Church Attendance Are Offered Here, Too.

In view of the splendid response to the invitation of our ministers and the church federation to attend church by men and women who have drifted into the habit of non-attendance, the following answers compiled from letters sent to over five hundred men of Palmyra recently by the Ministerial Alliance of that place, embracing three general queries, should be read with considerable interest here, as the same answers in general would probably be obtained from a similar number of queries sent out to our own men, or to the men of any average community:

Why they do:

From a sense of duty.

For instruction and fellowship.

To worship God.

For entertainment, prestige, business and social popularity, pleasure.

Church a place to meet God.

Church aids me in my effort to live the Christian life.

It ministers to soul hunger.

Because of a longing for that which the Gospel offers.

Why they do not:

About one-half of the answers received laid the blame on the churches thusly:

Church unspiritual.

Always calling for money.

Inconsistency and hypocrisy among church members.

Church doesn't tactfully invite men to its services.

Preaching lacking in vigor and attractiveness.

Church fails to do what it professes.

The other half laid the blame on themselves, in this wise.

Excuses too easily found.

Indifference and neglect.

Don't want consciences stirred.

Habits.

Newspapers.

Love of ease.

Stress of business life.

Lost interest.

Ignorance.

In replying to the query as to why more women than men attend church regularly, these answers were received:

Women are better than men.

Women are more religious than men.

Women are more emotional than men.

Women are more responsive to religious appeal.

Trained with greater care from childhood.

Have more time and better opportunity than men.

Christianity has done more for the women.

Not so many attractions to lead them away from church.

Going to church is more of a diversion with her than man.

Not so much engaged in wordly enterprises.

Not so much in contact with evil.

Woman is more constant in her devotion to Christ and church. "Last at the cross, first at the tomb."

Needs of Savior more than men.

More idealistic and more free from vices condemned by preachers.

More of them.

MACON, GA., CHILD

Made Strong and Well by Vinol.

When we tell you that Vinol is the best remedy in our whole stock for making weak, puny, ailing children strong, robust and rosy we are only telling you what has been proved by hundreds of mothers.

J. L. Fickling, Macon, Ga., says: "My child was very thin and delicate, no appetite, nervous, and did not sleep well. Doctors did not help her. Vinol was recommended and the change, after a fair trial, was wonderful. She sleeps soundly all night, has a splendid appetite and has gained in weight. I wish every mother knew what Vinol will do for delicate children."

What Vinol did for this little girl it will do for every weak and ailing child, because sickly children need the strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains—that is why Vinol builds them up quickly and gives them a fine, healthy color. It is pleasant to take and we guarantee that the results will satisfy you—money back if they do not. The O'rear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.
